

Sign up for GitLab

You will need a GitLab account to claim work items and contribute to The Good Docs Project.

Follow these steps to sign up:

1. Go to the GitLab sign-up page.
2. Enter your name, email address, and other requested information.
3. Complete GitLab's email verification step.
4. Enter the requested profile information, such as role, planned use of GitLab, and so forth.

You will land on a Welcome to GitLab dashboard page upon completion.

Congratulations! You are now a registered GitLab user.
